VISITOR REGULATIONS

Dear visitors to the Bernisches Historisches Museum

Welcome to the museum! We hope you enjoy your visit. These visitor regulations are designed to ensure your visit is as enjoyable as possible, at the same as keeping all the individuals and exhibits on the premises safe and secure. The regulations apply to all visitors. By entering the museum premises, you agree to abide by these regulations. Staff on duty have the right to issue additional instructions at any time.

Visitors must not touch any of the exhibits. Visitors will be held liable for any damage they cause.

For security reasons, the museum is subject to CCTV surveillance.

Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the museum. No food or drinks can be taken into the museum.

Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

No animals may be taken into the museum (except assistance dogs).

Visitors can keep their jackets on while in the building. Small rucksacks and standard-sized handbags may be carried in the museum. Large items of luggage, large handbags and rucksacks, umbrellas and other such items must be deposited in the cloakroom. The museum will not accept any liability for objects and/or valuables left in the cloakroom.

Due to the nature of individual exhibitions, or if the museum is particularly crowded, it may not be possible to take prams and pushchairs into some parts of the building. Prams and pushchairs can be left in the cloakroom.

Unless otherwise indicated, visitors may take photographs for their own private use, provided they do not use the flash, a tripod or a selfie stick. All professional filming and photography must be approved in advance by our Marketing and Communication department.

Teaching staff are considered responsible for their school classes throughout their visit to the museum. School classes and other groups should register in advance via the website.
